Passing of the peace

Call to Worship (based on Psalm 119: 81-88)

L/ My soul faints with longing for my salvation but I have hope in the Word of the Lord.

C/ I look for the promise to be fulfilled but see desolation. How long will you take to comfort my affliction Lord?

L/ Though the world is foggy and I do not see your salvation now, still I do not forget your decrees not forsake your promises.

C/ The arrogant and conceited lay traps for me and those in power speak lies, all of it against Your Law. How long will you wait Lord?

L/ Preserve my life Lord for I keep your Law. Save me because of your great love, O God, and teach me to follow all your precepts.

C/ Save me because of your love, O God, and teach me to follow all your commandments.

Hymn of Praise: #157 The Love of God

Prayer of Confession

L/ Remember what Jesus said. "You shall love the Lord your God with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the greatest of all the commandments and the second is like it. You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the law and prophets." (Matthew 22: 37-40) Let us now pause and consider how we have kept this Law of God. (all pause)

All/ Holy God, in your presence we confess our sinfulness, our shortcomings, and our offenses against You and against our neighbors and ourselves. You know we are not worthy of Your love. Have mercy on us. Open our hearts to the truth Jesus showed, that Your love is always there and that You love us even if we are not worthy. Send Your Spirit that we might be Your children, redeemed and re-born in the Blood of Christ Jesus, who lives and reigns with You and the Spirit, one God forever. Amen.

L/ Hear these words of scripture: “Hear now what the Lord says, the one who created you O Jacob and the one who formed you O Israel, “Fear not for I have redeemed you: I have summoned you by name; you are mine!” (Isaiah 43: 1) In the name of Jesus I declare, our sins are forgiven and God’s love is proved on the cross!

L/ Q. 26 – What do we believe when we say, “I believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth?”

All/ We believe that the eternal Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who out of nothing created heaven and earth and everything in them, who still upholds and rules them by eternal counsel and providence, is my God and Father because of Christ the Son. I trust God so much that I do not doubt God will provide whatever I need for body and soul, and will turn to good whatever adversity sent upon me in this sad world. God is able to do this because the Father is Almighty God and desires to do so because God is a faithful Father.

Prayer of Thanksgiving (from our Reformed Heritage)

L/ Infinite Love, where’er we turn our eyes appears: this every creature’s wants supplies. This most heard in nature’s constant voice that makes the morn and the eve rejoice. This love bids the fost’ring rains and dews to descend, to nourish all, to serve one general end.

C/ Love which desires the good of people yet we humans ungrateful stay. To Him, Love, whose works arrayed with mercy shine, to Him alone what songs should arise, how constant, how divine! (Phyllis Wheatley, 1773, former slave in Boston area and composer of poetry)
