Passing of the peace

Call to Worship (based on Psalm 131)

L/ My heart is not proud, O Lord, and I do not deserve grand things

C/ I am content that you are in control of the greatest and the least things

L/ Teach me to wait in patience for you, to put my hope in Your Word.

C/ Still and quiet my soul like a child weaned with its mother

L/ Put your hope in the Lord O Israel, today and forever!

Hymn of Praise: #33 Immortal, Invisible, God only Wise

Prayer of Confession

All/ Precious and merciful Father, we admit and publically declare that we have sinned. We have sinned by only thinking of ourselves. We have sinned by failing to stand up for what is right for all people. We have sinned by acting in bad faith and by spreading not love but division. Teach us y your Spirit to hope in Jesus. Turn our minds and hearts to your wisdom and lead us in the paths we are to follow.

L/ Hear these words of scripture: “We know that in all things God work for the good of those who love Him and are called according to God’s purpose.” (Romans 8:28) In the name of Jesus I declare, our sins are forgiven and God’s love is proved on the cross!

Sermon

Affirmation of Faith: Scots Confession 1560 (PCUSA Book of Confessions, 3.04 and 3.08)

All/ We believe that God, after that fearful and horrible departure of humans from God’s obedience, did seek out Adam and Eve again, call upon them, rebuke and convict them of sin, and in the end made a joyful promise that God would destroy sin and the works of the devil. That promise was repeated and made clearer from time to time, causing the faithful to receive it in joy, from Adam to Noah, from Noah to Abraham, from Abraham to David, and onwards until Jesus Christ. That same eternal God and Father, who by grace alone chose us in the Son Jesus before the foundation of the world, appointed Jesus Christ to be our head, our brother, our pastor, and the one great bishop of our souls. By this holy family whatever was lost in Adam and Eve is restored to us in the Spirit. So we confess and most undoubtingly believe.

Sacrament of the Lord’s Table (BCW 126)

Words of institution: 1 Corinthians 11: 23-26

Invitation

All who seek the Lord Jesus with a sincere heart are welcome at this table for it is His and not our own.

L/ The Lord be with You
L/ Lift your Hearts
L/ Let us give thanks to God
C/ And also with you
C/ We lift them to God
C/ Praise Father, Son, and Spirit

L/ Eternal God, holy and mighty...therefore we praise you, joining our voices with the heavenly choirs and with the faithful of every time and place, who forever sing to the glory of your name:

C/ Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty! Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest! Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest!

L/ You are holy, O God of majesty...Christ is indeed the Bread of Life!

C/ When we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim your death, Lord Jesus, until you come in glory.

L/ Gracious God, pour out your Holy Spirit upon this bread and juice...until the promised day of Resurrection when the redeemed of all the ages will feast at your table in glory!

C/ Through Him, with Him, in Him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is Yours, Almighty Father, forever and ever. Amen!

Lord’s Prayer (using Debts)

Communion of the People

*Please sing Come to the Table of Grace found in the inside cover of the blue Presbyterian Hymnals. (Grace, peace, love, hope, joy)
Lord’s Prayer (using Debts)*

Prayer of Thanksgiving (from our Reformed Heritage)

L/ Now the shades of night are gone, now the morning light is come; Lord, we would be thine today, drive the shades of sin away. Make our souls as noonday clear, banish every doubt and fear. In thy vineyard, Lord. Today, we would labor and we would pray.

C/ Keep our haughty passions bound, rising up or sitting down. Keep us safe from every sin. When our life of work is past, O receive us then at last! (Samson Occom, First Native American to be ordained a Presbyterian Minister, 1745)
